Prelude Announcements

Prayer Concerns

Call to Worship: (inspired by Psalm 36)

Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, Your faithfulness to the clouds.

For with you is the fountain of life. Fill us with life!

Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains; Your judgments are like the great deep.

For with you is the fountain of life. Fill us with life!

O continue Your steadfast love to those who know You and Your salvation to the upright of heart! For with you is the fountain of life. Fill us with life!

*Hymn: "Immortal Invisible God Only Wise" #1

Prayer of Confession - Gracious God, we live in the tension between expectation and reality. Sometimes, we navigate that tension with hope and clarity. At other times, we fester in doubt, disappointment, and uncertainty. Help us to release our need to control and enable us to embrace the possibilities. May our trust in Your goodness and the power You have poured into us embolden our faith. Amen.

Words of Assurance - Beloved, know that God's grace meets us at our point of need with encouragement. Circumstances change, and that's the nature of God's creative work. Receive the gift of new life with the unexpected experiences it brings. God is with you and equips you for the journey.

Sharing the Peace: The Peace of Christ be with you! And also with you!

Joyful Response: "This Little Light of Mine" #524, vs. 1-2

This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine; this little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine, This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine; everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine. Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

Message: "Gifts for All" — Rev. Mike Price

Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer (sinned and sinned against us): Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who have sinned against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Celebrations and Joys

*Offering Response: "Take My Gifts" #562

Take whatever I can offer, gifts that I have yet to find.

Gifts that I am slow to sharper, talents of the hand and mind.

Things made beautiful to others, in the place where I must be.

Take my gifts and let me love you, God who first of all loved me.

*Dedication of Gifts and Offerings: Holy One, may our gifts declare Your glory and benefit the common good. Receive them with our gratitude for Your generosity and the opportunity to participate in Your kingdom on earth. Amen.

*Hymn: "Forward Through the Ages" #377

*Benediction

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

January 19, 2025

John 2:1-11

Extravagant Sign

Jesus is making his public debut as the Son of God, performing the first of seven recorded miracles in John's Gospel — turning 120 gallons of water into wine at a wedding in Cana of Galilee.

Now it wasn't the place or the time that Jesus had intended to display his divinity, but when your mother asks you to do something, as Mary did, you do it.

Mary's insistence for Jesus to intervene was out of concern for their hosts, as running out of wine was a great embarrassment. It was expected for food and drink to be abundant for the many days of wedding feasting. (Weddings in Jesus' time weren't just a sit-down dinner or a morning brunch. They went on for days.)

John's telling of this miracle, though, is not about saving face — or even revealing the face of God in Jesus.

There's a life-changing lesson for us today that is swishing around the six stone jars of water that are on the premises of the wedding banquet.

'To start, John's point of telling us there are six jars is important. Numbers have great significance in Jewish teachings. Seven, for example, represents perfection and completeness. Six, however, symbolizes imperfection. Jesus viewing those six jars as valuable for this miracle moment shows us how God sees all the things we deem unworthy as worthy.

There's more. The water in those jars were not meant for drinking, but rather for ceremonial washing. It was customary for Jews to wash their hands and say a blessing before any meal that included bread. It would be considered disgusting to drink from those six jars.

Jesus, though, does the unthinkable. He disregards Jewish beliefs and traditions, turning the untouchable water into the best wine anyone has ever tasted. Had the guests known the water for ceremonial washing was used for the wine they were sipping; they would have been aghast. Yet those privy to this miracle were getting a preview of what Jesus' mission would be: To dismantle the systems that separate the clean from the unclean, that keep the downtrodden down and the oppressed oppress.

Would we have sipped that wine if we knew where it came from? Would we be willing to bend rules, break traditions, rid ourselves of rituals if it meant experiencing amazing water-into-wine miracles that God has for us?

There's so much God wants to do in our lives, but first we need to let go of our assumptions of how life should be. Are you ready for a boundary-breaking, rule-busting God to turn your water into wine?

God, forgive us for those times we are so set in our ways that we close our hearts to the new thing You want to do in our lives. Open us this day to all the beautiful and exciting possibilities. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
